2022 Conference Attendees

“This conference was not only great at strengthening relationships I already had, but forging new ones as well. I have attended 22 mental health and related conferences the past two years. In terms of seeing familiar faces as well as making new connections, this was the most productive conference I have attended!”

- Hospital Business Development Director

“This was the best mental health conference I have ever attended.”

- Lynne G., Psychotherapist

OUR VENUE

The 2023 Lowcountry Mental Health Conference ~ July 26-28, 2023

The Gaillard Performance Center

The Gaillard offers a one of a kind auditorium that has become the center of the arts for the city of Charleston. The Lowcountry Mental Health Conference has access to several unique spaces that make up the performance hall to include break-out rooms, an elegant Exhibitor Hall, and reception space.

The Gaillard Grand Ballroom

The ballroom offers attendees and exhibitors a special venue for networking and sharing of information. Below is the general layout for the hall for our 2023 conference. You will be able to request specific booth space and we will let you know if it is available.

Our Virtual Viewing Platform

We offer a state of the art live virtual viewing option for attendees meaning you not only have access to an in-person audience but you are also given opportunities to connect with a large virtual audience from across the globe.
