Conference Attendees Typical Breakdown

"This conference was not only great at strengthening relationships I already had, but forging new ones as well. I have attended 22 mental health and related conferences the past two years. In terms of seeing familiar faces as well as making new connections, this was the most productive conference I have attended!"

- Hospital Business Development Director

"It was an absolute pleasure to attend. I referred several people and the feedback has been wonderful. They all agreed that it is the best conference they have ever attended. Every detail makes it stand above the rest"

- Morgan P., Business Development Rep

"This was the best mental health conference I have ever attended."

- Lynne G., Psychotherapist

OUR VENUE

The 2026 Lowcountry Mental Health Conference ~ July 29 - July 31, 2026

The Gaillard Performance Center

The Gaillard offers a one of a kind auditorium that has become the center of the arts for the city of Charleston. The Lowcountry Mental Health Conference has access to several unique spaces that make up the performance hall to include break-out rooms, an elegant Exhibit Hall, and reception space.

The Gaillard Grand Ballroom

Our Exhibit Hall offers attendees and exhibitors a special venue for networking and sharing of information. The following page shows the general layout for the hall for our 2025 conference, which will be almost identical to our 2026 set-up. You are able to chose your specific booth space as a Bronze or Exhibitor level supporter.

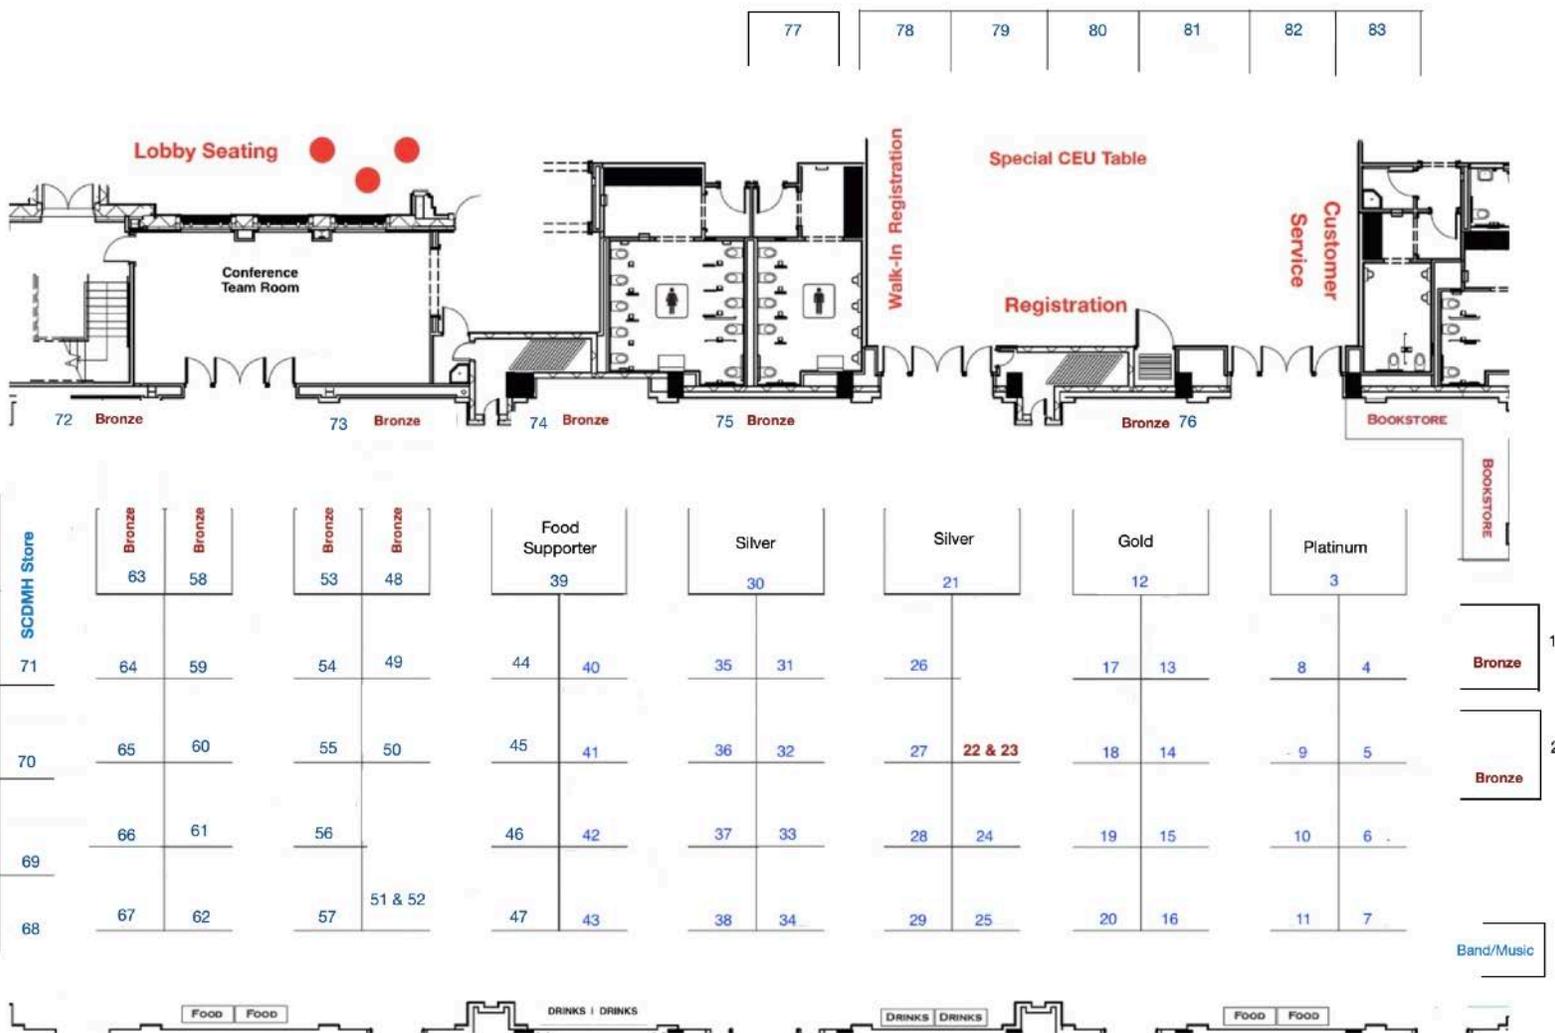

Our Virtual Viewing Platform

We offer a state-of-the art live virtual viewing option for attendees, meaning you not only have access to an in-person audience but you are also given opportunities to connect with a large virtual audience from across the globe.
